

Nic Hume and Peta Banks survey the chaotic foyer of the Powerhouse.

Pictures: IAN SVEGOVIC

Ghost world comes to life

SECOND PARANORMAL EXPO A BIG SUCCESS

Anna Hitchings

SUPERNATURAL and natural forces combined at the recent Paranormal and Spiritual Expo.

About 1000 people descended on Casula Powerhouse for the second annual event.

It included talks, psychic sessions and paranormal merchandise and was a chance to meet others in the paranormal phenomenon community.

The Powerhouse's foyer was full to bursting with attendees taking advantage of stalls, book signings and psychic readings, in what organiser Peta Banks described as a huge success.

"It was brilliant, beyond our wildest dreams. We

EERIE AND OOKY

- The second Paranormal and Spiritual Expo took place at Casula Powerhouse recently
- The all-day event was a big success, with 1000 people turning up
- Highlights included a talk and book signing by celebrity medium Mitchell Coombes, the premiere of the Ghosts of Casula documentary and a paranormal investigation at Liverpool TAFE were expecting maybe 600 but about 1000 came," Ms Banks said.

Amid seminars on connecting with the dead and whether ghosts are afraid of sceptics, celebrity medium Mitchell Coombes' talk, Sensing Spirit, proved by far to be the most popular event.

"He did a platform reading, connecting people with their deceased loved ones," Ms Banks said. "He had some people in tears, some people in laughter."

Following the talk, Coombes signed copies of his book Sensing Spirit.

The expo also featured the premiere of Ghosts of Casula, a documentary filmed by Ms Banks, Ashley Hall and Nic Hume about reported ghost sightings at the Powerhouse.

"It was its first time on a big screen, so that was very daunting, but everyone laughed in the right spots," Ms Banks said.

How did you find the expo?
Tell us at editor@liverpoolleader.com.au

take a number

20

Alleged shoplifters

LEPPINGTON

Memorial walk raises Cancer Council funds

THE Cancer Council is more than $8000 better off after a and only made possible by all the support given to us by

Tooheys Extra Dr

2 CASES FOR

$90

Save up to $10

VB 30

$36.99

CASE

Save up to $2

Carlton C

2 FOR $64

Save up to $14

White Heather
Scotch (700ml)

$3

Save

Ja C

Any 3 For $12

3 x 750ml

